ACTIVE SEARCH MANDATES

Elevator Services: Century Park has partnered with two highly experienced industry executives to make investments in companies specializing in elevator modernization, new installations, maintenance, and repair. Both executives previously held senior management roles at Otis, the world's largest elevator OEM. Century Park is actively pursuing a second platform in the elevator services sector, along with add-ons for its current platform, Total Access Elevator.

HOA Management: Century Park has teamed up with an experienced industry executive in the HOA Management space. The HOA Management market encompasses companies and services dedicated to the administration and management of residential communities. Communities include condominiums, townhouses, single-family home neighborhoods, and master-planned communities, which are governed by HOAs.

IT Services: Century Park is working with multiple executives to form new platform investments in IT Services. Specific verticals Century Park has invested in within IT Services have included value added resellers, cloud conversion consultancies, and smaller SaaS companies.
